The High School Commencement.

THE commencement exercises of Paris High School held Friday night were very creditable and entertaining and were attended by an immense crowd. The invocation was by Eld. J. S. Sweeney and the benediction by Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford. A splendid chorus was given by about forty children. Other musical numbers contributed were a piano duet by Misses Fannie Johnson and Sara Grinnan, a piano solo by Miss Anna Lee Talbott, a violin solo by Miss Nellie Mann, a selection by a quartet composed of Misses Lucy Downey, Pattie Ware, Nannie Swearingen and Mr. Hord Mann, a piano solo by Miss Mary Minter, a vocal duet by Fithian Lilliston and Ray Clark and a piano solo by Miss Ora Slaughter.

The honorary address was delivered by Mr. E. H. Martin, of Louisville, and the diplomas were awarded, in an eloquent little speech, by Mr. T. E. Ashbrook to the graduates—Mr. Hugh Clendenin, Mr. Robert Hunt, Misses Nellie Mann, Lucy Downey, Lizzie Ashurst, Mary Minter and Maud Powers. The valedictory was delivered by Miss Ashurst, and prizes won during the session were awarded by Supt. E. W. Weaver, who also awarded the medals and prizes won by Paris pupils at the Bluegrass Tournament recently held at Harrodsburg.

The graduation of the High School's first class was a most successful event and will lend great encouragement to the School which has attained such a high standard under the direction of the thoroughly efficient and energetic superintendent, Prof. E. W. Weaver, and his capable corps of teachers.

Through the courtesy of President Patterson of the A. & M. College, certificates of admission to that institution were received for all the graduates, also a four years scholarship which was awarded to Robert Hunt; the scholarship in Kentucky University was awarded to Miss Nellie Mann; in Oxford Female College, secured through the efforts of Dr. Jos. Fithian, to Miss Lizzie Ashurst; in Kentucky Wesleyan College, to Miss May Borland; in Central University to Miss Maud Powers. The awards to the other members of the class must be acted on by the college boards before the same are announced. In addition to the numerous Tournament prizes, the following were awarded:

A gold medal furnished by Mrs. R. B. Hutchcraft, to Willie Swearingen for excellence in Music.

The school medal in Arithmetic to Helen Connell.

The school medal in Composition to Logan Howard.

A Literature medal furnished by Miss Sallie Richardson to Miss George Grimes.

A gold medal in Literature offered by Mrs. Florence Lockhart, to Miss Frankie Marsh.

The medal in Penmanship to Miss Ella Ranson.

Prizes in reading were awarded to Miss Mary Fithian Hutchcraft and to Miss Mamie Lovely by Miss Allie Hart. The graduates of the class of '97 will enter college except Mr. Clendenin who expects to teach a year or two, after which he will study medicine.

Most of the High School teachers will attend the meeting of the National Educational Association at Milwaukee.

Miss Richardson will spend the greater part of her vacation at a professional school, as will also Miss Hart.

Mr. Weaver leaves this morning for Cincinnati where he will work in the library for a week or two in revising the course of study and collecting material for a new illustrated lecture. On June 27 he will give a demonstration before the Kentucky Educational Association in teaching Geography; after which he will also go to Milwaukee, spending on his return a few weeks in the professional schools of Chicago.

It was unfortunate that dissatisfaction should exist over the seating of the audience at the High School Commencement Friday night at the Opera House. Tickets were issued for the lower floor to insure seats to parents, patrons and friends of the school and it was impossible that everyone could be satisfactorily seated. THE NEWS has been asked to suggest that no tickets be issued in the future so that all persons interested may have an equal chance.
